Description
The Electronic Technology minor gives students a basic knowledge in the use and programming of microprocessor-based circuits. It also illustrates how digital combinational and sequential circuits work, and provides students with some applications of these types of circuits. The minor complements studies in computer science, physics, instrumentation, as well as student interest in a general background on how computers work.

Fully Offered At:
- Kent Campus

Admission Requirements
Admission to a minor is open to students enrolled in a bachelor's degree, the A.A.B. or A.A.S. degree or the A.T.S. degree (not Individualized Program major).
