Description
The Master of Fine Art degree in Studio Art is designed to prepare students for careers as independent visual artists through the cultivation and refinement of a successful studio practice. The program emphasizes intensive personal investigation and the development of strong aesthetic and conceptual understanding. In addition to time in their own studio, students have opportunities to enhance existing skills and knowledge by observing undergraduate class demonstrations and critiques.

The M.F.A. is the terminal degree in the studio arts and is a requirement for those who intend to teach visual arts in higher education.

The Studio Art major comprises the following concentrations:

• Ceramics
• Drawing
• Glass
• Jewelry, Metals and Enameling
• Painting
• Print Media and Photography
• Sculpture
• Textiles

Fully Offered At:
• Kent Campus

Accreditation
National Association of Schools of Art and Design (NASAD)

Admission Requirements
• Official transcript(s)
