Description
The Disability Studies and Community Inclusion minor prepares students to be leaders in promoting greater inclusion of people with disabilities in all aspects of life and across the lifespan. The minor enhances students’ knowledge and skills by preparing them to understand and comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA); provide services to people with disabilities in a variety of settings; understand the nature of disabilities; understand the meaning of disability in society; understand social, political and health implications of disability; and understand methods of accommodations that aid in making society more inclusive to those who live with disabilities.

Fully Offered At:
• Kent Campus

Admission Requirements
Admission to a minor is open to students enrolled in a bachelor’s degree, the A.A.B. or A.A.S. degree or the A.T.S. degree. Students enrolled only in the A.A. or A.S. degree may not declare a minor. Students may not pursue a minor and a major in the same discipline.
