HIED 76663  STATUS OF WOMEN IN HIGHER EDUCATION  3 Credit Hours
Provides a comprehensive overview of the historical, contemporary, and scholarly perspectives on women students, faculty, administrators, and staff. We explore why and how women and men experience higher education differently, by drawing on historical, cultural, and psychological contexts, feminist theoretical and research perspectives, and scholarly contributions. As we do, we amplify voices from across identity groups, observing that there is not a homogeneous "woman in higher education." Likewise, we are sensitive to how consideration of context, recognition of power, other dimensions of identities, and desire to change society and the academy have fueled and shaped feminist study of the history and condition of women in higher education. Not only explores these issues through various media in class, but students also have the opportunity to investigate a problem of their choice in order to bring the content to life.
