Description

The Architectural Studies minor exposes students to the history, theory and design process of architecture and the built environment. Potential majors to benefit from this minor include, but are not limited to, studio arts, fashion, photojournalism, interior design, visual communication design, construction management, the sciences, English, history, public health, journalism/mass communication and business management.

Admission Requirements

Admission to a minor is open to students declared in a bachelor's degree, the A.A.B. or A.A.S. degree or the A.T.S. degree (not Individualized Program major). Students declared only in the A.A. or A.S. degree or the A.T.S. degree in Individualized Program may not declare a minor. Students may not pursue a minor and a major in the same discipline.
