About This Program

The Advertising minor provides students with an overview of the different roles advertising plays in society. Students gain an understanding of social, legal and marketing considerations in advertising and how branding is created through media and creative strategies to persuade a designated target audience.

Students in the minor have the opportunity to get involved with the Kent State University chapter of the American Advertising Federation (AAF). AAF gives students the opportunity to network, develop their professional skills and prepare for a career in this exciting field.
